Report on One-Day Online Workshop: Role of MS Excel in Research

Introduction: On August 1, 2022, PragatiMahavidyalay organized a one-day online workshop focusing on the "Role of MS Excel in Research." The workshop aimed to enhance participants' skills in using Microsoft Excel as a powerful tool for data analysis and research applications.

Workshop Details:

Date: August 1, 2022

Mode: Online

Host: PragatiMahavidyalay, SawkhedaSillod, Aurangabad

Guest Speaker: Dr. M.R. Ghute

Coordinator: Prof. Chandranayan K. Waghmare

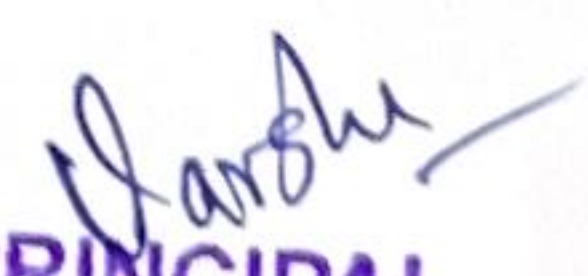

Principal: Dr. Varsha S. Phalke

Objectives: The workshop aimed to:

1. Introduce the fundamental features of MS Excel relevant to research.
2. Demonstrate practical applications of Excel in data analysis.
3. Encourage participants to integrate Excel into their research methodologies.

Highlights of the Workshop

- Session 1: Dr. M.R. Ghute delivered an insightful introduction to MS Excel, emphasizing its significance in research for organizing, analyzing, and visualizing data. He highlighted the benefits of using Excel, including its accessibility and ease of use.
- Session 2: The second session focused on advanced features of Excel, such as pivot tables, charts, and statistical functions. Participants learned how to utilize these features for effective data analysis, making their research more robust and reliable.
